

West Midlands Diabetes and Endocrine Training Day Feedback Summary for Chairs

Chair feedback for Dr Saeed

Date	24th March 2015
Topics covered	Osteomyelitis Charcot foot End of life care in diabetes
Number of registrars present	22-24

Feedback Comments:

- Very nice and helpful, really knowledgeable, knows latest guidelines and updates, gives clear advice and guidance, very interactive makes appropriate comments.
- Very clear, clinically focussed teaching. Polite good audience rapport.
- Very clear
- Excellent chair contribution, good immediate feedback, very constructive, well researched.
- Good audience interaction.
- Good content, delivery and relevance.
- Good interaction, discussed key points after each session, good knowledge and application in clinical settings/relevance. Enjoyable discussions and good chair.
- Good chair, knowledgeable in topics discussed, good clinical advice.
- Very good, enthusiastic chair, with good knowledge of the topic and shared with the audience.
- Guided the education well and summarised with current evidence in easy to understand and useful ways. Good input. Useful additions to presentations. Very good session.
- Covers all key points for each topic very well.
- Very interactive and explained well.
- Chaired the session well, focused approach and clinically relevant input.
- Very interactive. Useful tips throughout the talks. Answered all questions.